

James R. Stringer
Inducted 2015
(Plaque #204)

James was raised in Strasburg, Colorado by Jim and Peggy Stringer. His coaching career spanned 22 years, starting in Kingman, Arizona in 1992. He coached in Burlington, Rocky Mountain and Powell, WY. Jim was dedicated to teaching life skills and he felt honored to be part of the game he loved. His main emphasis was in football and wrestling. He also coached boys' and girls' track, baseball and girls' softball. Jim coached one baseball State Champion team, four football State Champion teams, two football Conference Championships and had back-to-back undefeated seasons.

He was the Wyoming NFL youth Summit Representative, four time WCA Football Coach of the Year, and the 2006 Casper Star-Tribune Super 25 Coach of the Year. Jim was both head and assistant coach twice for the North Shrine Bowl.

His first love was his family. His son Riley, will continue Jim's tradition of playing football at the University of Wyoming, where Jim played for two years. His twin daughters, Kodi and Kooper, will carry his love for fishing and the outdoors. Jim's wife, Jill, teaches at Powell High School, where they taught together for nine years. He will remain in our hearts through our life journey.
